g. Any other information you wish to convey that might aid the Members of the Committee to better understand the context of your testimony.

GCC has co-created a Renewable Energy/Energy Efficiency training and education program with more than 40 business and community partners. Most program participants find family-sustaining employment or pursue additional education (e.g. 4-year, professional, graduate). Skilled workers have helped grow opportunities for local businesses, started new businesses and grown this sector of our regional economy. Our model has many replicable components that could be implemented in other regions and in different sectors of the energy field.
