

In Case You Missed It

NATURAL RESOURCES COMMITTEE REPUBLICANS

"Some of the land is leased by ranchers from the federal government, including the Coronado National Forest. A travel caution sign is posted there: Smuggling and Illegal Immigration May Be Encountered in this Area."

A Rancher's Personal Battle

July 19, 2010

KSAZ Fox 10

John Hook

Click here to watch

DOUGLAS, Ariz. - This Arizona rancher is on the front lines of the border battle, living not far from a nearly non-existent border fence east of Douglas in the southeastern part of the state.

It's where cowboys and their families deal with illegal aliens, drug runners, and thieves -- something they never expected to live with, but now have to fight.

When Ed Ashurst hears the statistics that border crime is going down, he says, the crime in his neighborhood is tenfold what it was five years ago. Watch the full story.

For more information visit www.republicans.resourcescommittee.house.gov/border

###

House Natural Resources Committee Republican Press Office

Contact: Jill Strait or Spencer Pederson

202-226-2311

<http://republicans.resourcescommittee.house.gov>

Facebook | YouTube | Twitter