In addition, for witnesses representing organizations:

g. Any offices, elected positions, or representational capacity held in the organization(s) on whose behalf you are testifying.

None

h. Any federal grants or contracts (including subgrants or subcontracts) from the Department of the Interior (and /or other agencies invited) that were received in the current year and previous four years by the organization(s) you represent at this hearing, including the source and amount of each grant or contract for each of the organization(s).

Over the past five years, the Center has filed on average about 48 lawsuits a year. A significant portion of these (about 20%) are not federal cases. About half the federal cases are brought under the Endangered Species Act, while the remainder include claims under the National Environmental Policy Act, Clean Air Act, Clean Water Act, Freedom of Information Act, National Forest Management Act, and quite a few other federal laws. Recent federal cases include:

- -a challenge filed in Nebraska federal court to route-clearing work that's being done on the Keystone XL Pipeline before the State Department issued its approvals
- -a suit to protect Gulf of Mexico sea turtles from drowning caused by shrimp trawling
- -a suit challenging as unconstitutional the Congressional bid to override a federal court and remove federal protection for the Rocky Mountain wolf population
- -a set of lawsuits challenging late decisions on Endangered Species Act listing petitions that resulted in a settlement with the Fish and Wildlife Service to make listing decisions on 757 species faced with extinction
- -the 2007 lawsuit that resulted in revision of the politically motivated 2005 critical habitat designation for the Santa Ana sucker.

j. A list of any countries from which the organization(s) you represent at the hearing have received foreign donations and the total amount of donations received from each country, for the current year and the previous four years, by each organization.

The Center for Biological Diversity's 990 forms for the last 3 years are provided as PDF files. The categories variously described as "cost recovery for environmental litigation" and "legal settlement" represent more than just fees from the Center's federal litigation - actual federal fees are considerably lower than the totals in these categories.

The reports include a summary of accomplishments with details when specifics are required. The interim reports are reviewed to ensure the requirements of the grant are being accomplished and to assist the grantees if any concerns are identified. In some cases grantees participate in monthly phone conferences that review the overall progress of the project.

Thereafter, the governing board or committee investigates alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement and determines whether the organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee then determines by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable.
