In addition, for witnesses representing organizations:

g. Any offices, elected positions, or representational capacity held in the organization(s) on whose behalf you are testifying.

I direct the Rule of Law Committee for the Oceans as an independent consultant/contractor. As the Committee does not take formal or official positions, I will be testifying in my personal capacity as an expert in the Law of the Sea Negotiations and the Law of the Sea Convention.

h. Any federal grants or contracts (including subgrants or subcontracts) from the Department of the Interior (and /or other agencies invited) that were received in the current year and previous four years by the organization(s) you represent at this hearing, including the source and amount of each grant or contract for each of the organization(s).

The Rule of Law Committee for the Oceans does not receive any federal grants and has not received such grants at any time in the past.

i. A list of all lawsuits or petitions filed by the organization(s) you represent at the hearing against the federal government in the current year and the previous four years, giving the name of the lawsuit or petition, the subject matter of the lawsuit or petition, and the federal statutes under which the lawsuits or petitions were filed for each of the organization(s).

Neither I nor the Rule of Law Committee for the Oceans have any lawsuits or petitions files against the federal government

j. A list of any countries from which the organization(s) you represent at the hearing have received foreign donations and the total amount of donations received from each country, for the current year and the previous four years, by each organization.

Neither I nor the Rule of Law Committee for the Oceans represent any foreign countries. Nor do we include any foreign citizens in our membership.

k. For tax-exempt organizations and non-profit organizations, copies of the three most recent public IRS Form 990s (including Form 990-PF, Form 990-N, and Form 990-EZ) for each of the organization(s) you represent at the hearing (not including any contributor names and addresses or any information withheld from public inspection by the Secretary of the Treasury under 26 U.S.C. 6104)).

The Rule of Law Committee for the Oceans is a project under the Fiscal Agency of the Stimson Center. The Stimson Center does not have any role in the work, products or activities of the Rule of Law Committee for the Oceans nor will I speak on their behalf. Donations to the Rule of Law Committee are made through the Stimson Center so the Committee does not file Form 990. 990s.
