f. Any other information you wish to convey that might aid the Members of the Committee to better understand the context of your testimony.

As stated above I have worked in the offshore oil & gas industry for 18 years. The vast majority of this time has been in reclamation. My expertise is in platform removal, pipeline abandonment and site clearance. I have a published paper with the BOEMRE covering the process of pipeline flushing and pipeline integrity. I began my career in the field working for various firms and now own a consulting firm specializing in the management of decommissioning programs. My company employs 22 people. Over the past 18 years I have removed approximately 120 platforms and abandoned approximately 150 pipelines.
