1. Please attach/include current curriculum vitae or resume.

David MacDonald currently serves as President and CEO of Friends of Acadia, a not-for-profit organization with more than 4,500 members and a 29-year history as the premier philanthropic and community partner of Acadia National Park on Mount Desert Island, Maine. At Friends of Acadia, David works with a staff of twelve to deliver a range of programs that accomplish the organization’s mission of preserving and protecting Acadia National Park and the surrounding communities for generations to come. Since its founding in 1986, FOA has granted more than $20 million to Acadia and partner organizations. Prior to joining FOA in May 2012, David led the land protection programs at Maine Coast Heritage Trust, a state-wide land trust, from 1991-2012, including many transactions in and around Acadia. He also serves as a volunteer Board Member and Trustee for several local conservation organizations, including the Somes-Meynell Wildlife Sanctuary, the Mount Desert Land and Garden Preserve, and the Pleasant River Wildlife Foundation. David attended Mount Desert Island High School, and holds a BA from Wesleyan University. He currently lives in Somesville with his wife Caroline Pryor and two children, Eliza and Jesse.
