James C. (Jim) Moore
Williams
Vice President, Commercial – Eastern Interstates
Biography

Jim has worked in the natural gas pipeline industry for over thirty-seven years. He started his career at Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Company (Transco) in 1977 and worked in a variety of areas of increasing responsibility including accounting, transportation services, and gas supply. He joined Williams Natural Gas Company in 1990 as Director of MIS and in 1993 assumed the role of Director of Business Development. He was actively involved in Williams' acquisition of Transco Energy Company, and subsequent to the acquisition moved to Houston where he was responsible for business development, and later, strategic planning for Williams Gas Pipeline. In his current role as Vice President of Commercial he leads a group responsible for customer and transportation services, along with business development activities for Transco, Pine Needle LNG, Cardinal Pipeline, and Gulfstream Natural Gas System. Jim graduated from Mississippi State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting and he is a CPA in the State of Texas. He serves on the Southern Gas Association Executive Council and is active in his church. He has been married to his wife Tracy for over twenty-five years and has two children, Courtney and Connor. He and his family currently reside in Houston.
